

Personal Information Management for Managers

Course Overview

The Personal Information Management Program is a one-to-one, desk-side coaching program. The course is designed to enable Managers to dramatically increase their personal productivity while improving the quality of their lives. The course supports participants in creating an Integrated Management System using Microsoft® Office Outlook®. This system manages a constant stream of incoming electronic and voice mail communications, objectives and projects and is centrally located, accessible and flexible.

By the end of the one-day coaching program Managers will experience a sense of relaxed, focused control, with all goals, plans, action steps and information organized in Outlook. Key issues addressed include: managing multiple objectives and projects, delegating, tracking delegated items, managing one-on-one and staff meetings, leading versus managing, e-mail overload, e-mail protocol, filing and finding information easily, dealing with interruptions, and integrating personal and professional priorities.

A 30-minute pre-call is conducted prior to the eight-hour coaching day to assess roles, objectives and appropriate customization. The program takes place on-site in the client’s office.

“Implementing the principles and tools taught in this course has improved my productivity and effectiveness significantly. I get more done, am more organized, and feel greater peace of mind. If only I had discovered these principles and applied Outlook’s powerful organizing tools earlier. I highly recommend this course.”
